TESTIMONIALS

Jeffrey Hasemann – Singer, Pianist and Guitarist

„The collaboration with Patrick turned out very efficiently. He has a mature perception to think himself into new song structures and is able to reproduce them immediately, by keeping the original content and adding his individual nuances to it. In terms of learning the ropes, he didn't set himself any limits. With a mass of repertoire and a very short time schedule he was able to master the upcoming gigs“

Marc Reason – Rise of Pandemonium

„I can only recommend Patrick! He has managed to work himself into a full live set in just three weeks! Which is why we had this awesome gig together! He has a great understanding of melodies and rhythms, and it's really fun with him. Not only playing live but also to work on new songs! "

Stephan Saretz – PLAYGROUND & Trius Music

„Patrick Hesse plays the electric and acoustic guitar since season 2012 for PLAYGROUND. Confident and competent he covers all the various requirements a modern guitarist needs for a 80s / 90s Pop Cover program. In particular he easily demonstrates his technical skills and musical flexibility, as well as his stylistic security.“

Mirko Schombert – Theater educator „Staatstheater Mainz“

„Patrick N. Hesse was the musical director in the production "Vor langer Zeit im Mai" at the Deutsches Theater in Göttingen in the season 2009/2010. He found musically atmospheric translations for the pictorial language of the presentation - both by his own compositions and its live performance by himself. Both his music and his presence on stage were the pillars of the production which defined the aesthetics of the production significantly. His musical intuition, creativity and cooperative and sensitive handling of the ensemble made it a very pleasant and successful cooperation. I thank Patrick for all his dedication.“

Manuel Stübecke - Producer, Screenwriter, Director

„In the past three years I have worked with Patrick N. Hesse on three major projects that I was responsible for as a producer, screenwriter and director. Our first collaboration (2009) was the short film "business as usual - Was bleibt ist Schweigen", which plays completely in a student pub. Essential part of the soundtrack is that the music of the pub represents the score at the same time. Patrick could keep the proper balance between those two appropriately. During the subsequent project "New Life" (2009), which is about a blind graphic, I consulted Patrick to create an acoustic world of a blind man. Further consultations followed for small projects in 2010. In summer of 2011 began the production of the short film "Westphalian idyll". for which Patrick created the soundtrack and sound design. In addition to his musical and technical abilities, I appreciate Patrick's dramaturgical understanding that makes it possible to give the projects a positive drive. The finished products contain his musical signature in a pleasant way. "

Ungestüm – Metal band from Göttingen

„Patrick Hesse is known to us from different musical contexts. First of all, we have seen him in several appearances with his band "Nindriel" and also during two concerts we did together with our bands. In the latter, he proved himself in organizational contexts as competent, reliable and helpful and beyond that as very pleasant human. On stage, he always stuck out by his stage presence. Relaxed and confident combined with both playfulness and precision. Particular attention should also be his highly professional degree. As evidenced among other things by the fact that he worked himself within a week and only one band rehearsal into a 40min set. So he could replace our bass player at a concert in 2010. He fit right in the band, as if he had always been a member of it.“

Two Weeks Amsterdam – Metalcore band from Berlin

„An incredible guitarist who lives for his instrument!“

Jessica Königsmann – Guitar student (2012-2015)

„Patrick N. Hesse is an always motivated guitar teacher, who puts his own extensive know-how, talent and joy into his guitar students. He has mastered several learning and motivational techniques, that consider the learning goals and interests of the student, so quick progress can be achieved. Among the wide variety of learning / training techniques he always provides the proper materials and makes use of both classical notes in paper format, as well as multi-media programs. The song repertoire is very extensive and always considers the taste of the guitar student. I can only recommend Patrick N. Hesse to anyone who wants to learn to play the guitar with fun, motivation and a plan.“

Jack Streat - inHuman & Neverus

„Pat is a stand-up guy and a guardian angel on tour. Plus he can shred!“

Astrid Kaiserman - inHuman

„Pat jumped into the sea with me. (Or was it the ocean? It was on tour - many places were visited - it was one of those). That was when we became friends. That was after he jumped on the tour during which we jumped into said sea during which we jumped into said friendship. Then he kept all of us healthy and happy by providing us with ridiculous - albeit indubitably correct - amounts of chocolate. Then my computer broke on stage and he jumped on the opportunity to fix it at his home after the tour (you know, some 500km away from mine). When he sent it back to me, there was more chocolate. And of course, a repaired computer.

Basically, Pat's a jumper. I'm not sure what exactly that means but I do know it's all of the good things. He's also really damn good at playing guitar, which seems so obvious that I even forgot to write about it. Killer guitar skills lead to tour leads to friendship leads to chocolate. Win-win-win-win.“

Anja Hunzinger - AEON GODS & Aeternitas

„„Big shoutout to Pat - our partner in crime for the last two weeks of our European Tour! 🔥 He jumped in on short notice, brought tons of good energy on and off stage. 🎸⚡ Always supportive and always firing up the crowd. From rocking the stage to sharing great moments on the road - it's been an absolute blast having you with us. Thanks, you truly rocked it! 🙌“

Alexander Hunzinger - AEON GODS & Aeternitas

Pat joined us as a session guitarist for two weeks on our European tour in 2025. As a musician and a person, we could always rely on him. His performance on stage fit perfectly into our show.“
